Unique heritage
in serving multinationals doing business in Greece

Industry-focused

When you commission our Corporate practice, you engage experienced specialists.

We have expertise in specific industries, such as automotive and industrial technology, aviation, banking and financial services, education, energy, food and beverage, healthcare, hospitality and leisure, IT, media and entertainment, non-profit, real estate and telecommunications.

We are also present in Greek fora, such as the Hellenic Federation of Enterprises (SEV) and Chambers of Commerce. Our partners devote significant time on thought leadership, speaking in industry conferences and workshops, publishing newsletters and articles, as well as organizing client training events.

You benefit

For every project we form a multi-disciplinary and industry-focused team, involving legal specialists from relevant practices, and where needed tax experts, accountants and economists to help you profit.

However, you only have to deal with one person in our firm – a dedicated contact who leads our team that conducts and manages your project.

Our people help you decide on the best vehicle to conduct business in Greece, such as a subsidiary, branch or partnership. We then implement your decision and deal with the regulatory, tax and accounting aspects, and support you throughout your business life in Greece.

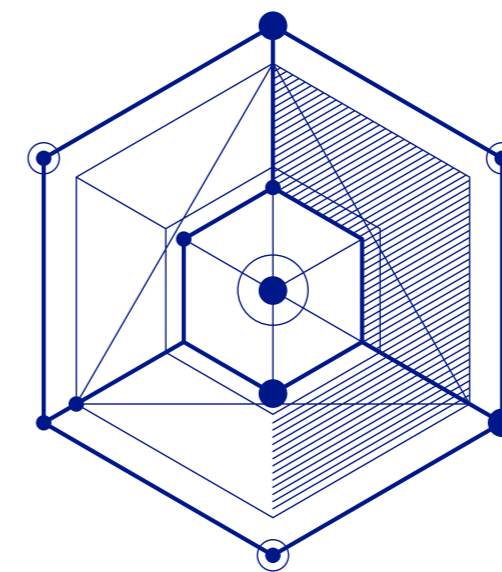

We can handle high volumes of complicated work within tight deadlines. In this, you profit from the size of our firm, strength of support services in knowledge management, IT and systems, and rigorous quality controls.

One third of our staff works in business support. We continue to invest heavily in the development and training of the people who deliver your success.

Leading companies

About 90% of our clients are based outside Greece, more than a third of our work comes from international law firms and we participate in multinational networks. This orientation helps us operate seamlessly across borders.

We already work with leading companies like: Bayer, Benetton, Bic, Booking.com, Broadcom, Chiquita, Cisco, Club Méditerranée, Costamare, Crown, ENEL, Exxon Mobil, Grundfos, Herbalife, Hewlett Packard, Iberdrola, Jet2.com, Johnson & Johnson, Leaseplan, Leo Pharma, L'Oréal, Luxottica, Media Saturn, Microsoft, Mondelez, Nokia, Pierre Fabre, Remy Cointreau, Roche, Sfera Joven, Stavros Niarchos Foundation, Trafigura, Travelport, Tui, Turkish Airlines, Uber, UPS, Xeikon, and Zimmer.
